Whitehall, July 5.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly deſire to expreſs our moſt grateful Senſe of that paternal Care and Solicitude for the Welfare of every Branch of the Community which has characterized the Whole of your Majeſty's Reign. We are particularly ſenſible of the freſh Proof that your Majeſty has given of theſe Diſpoſitions in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation for the Prevention of thoſe Evils, which, if ſuffered to gain Ground, might have endangered the Peace and Tranquillity of the Realm.

We moſt fully concur in the Sentiments which Parliament has expreſſed, of the Wiſdom and Expediency of the Meaſures which your Majeſty has taken for enſuring the Public Safety, and ſhall conſider ourſelves as united with them in every Effort for carrying thoſe Meaſures into Effect.

Inviolably attached to our preſent Conſtitution, under which we are conſcious of enjoying every Degree of Civil and Religious Liberty that is compatible with Order and good Government, we have ſeen, with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation, the wicked and daring Attempts which have been made to unſettle the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, and to ſubſtitute vain and deluſive Theories in the Place of that Allegiance to the Sovereign and that Obedience to the Laws, which are the only Bonds of Civil Society, and the ſole Sources of rational Liberty and Happineſs.

Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, and carrying in our Hearts the warmeſt Loyalty and Affection towards your Majeſty's Perſon, we fervently pray that we and our Poſterity may long continue to enjoy, unimpaired, that happy Form of Government, which, under your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Anceſtors, has raiſed this Country to a Pitch of Glory and Proſperity, which, inaſmuch as it is unequalled by other Nations, reflects itſelf, with conſcious Pride and Superiority, on the Minds of all thoſe whom Providence has placed under its auſpicious Influence.

[Tranſmitted by Edward Cotsford, Eſq; High Sheriff of the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, ſatisfied and and happy in the many Bleſſings we enjoy from the excellent Form of Goverument under which we live, and convinced of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to whatſoever may promote the Welfare and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Aſſurances of our warm and inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Family, and to expreſs our Gratitude for the wiſe Meaſures pointed out in your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation for the Diſcovery of thoſe inſidious Violators of the Laws, who, under the Pretence of being Friends to Liberty, have diſſeminated Opinions calculated to excite the moſt extreme Licentiouſneſs, and to ſubvert a Conſtitution which has long and deſervedly been the Pride and Glory of this Kingdom, and the Admiration of many others.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of every Exertion in our Power to diſcountenance and diſcourage ſuch dangerous Opinions, and to ſuppreſs every Attempt to diſturb the Public Tranquillity.

[Tranſmitted by Marquis Townſhend.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences.

Whether we reflect on the unexampled Proſperity of the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom, or on it's Public Credit compared with that of other Nations; whether we look at the Revenue of the Country, and the Reduction of Part of the Public Burthen, or obſerve the gradual Diminution of the National Debt; whether we ſurvey the preſent Condition of the Landed, the Commercial, and the Monied Intereſts of the Empire, or in a more eſpecial Manner, contemplate the Monarch on the Throne (whoſe whole Reign has been anxiouſly dedicated to give Security to thoſe Bleſſings, which flow from our moſt excellent Conſtitution) in any or in all of theſe Particulars, we are equally at a Loſs for Words adequately expreſſive of our grateful Senſations.

Under ſuch Circumſtances, it is much to be regretted that there ſhould be found Men, whoſe ſeditious Writings and Publications ſhould have a Tendency to deprive us of theſe invaluable Poſſeſſions, by ſapping the very Foundation of that Conſtitution on which they all depend; that glorious Fabric erected by our Anceſtors, which is at once the Pride of Britain and the Admiration of the World, affording amongſt it's other Excellences the ineſtimable one of adopting any Improvements which Time or Circumſtances may render neceſſary.

If, therefore, within our Sphere of Action or Obſervation, any ſuch Men ſhould be found, we moſt humbly beg to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall eſteem it our indiſpenſible Duty to give the utmoſt Efficacy in our Power to your Royal Proclamation, by taking all legal and conſtitutional Meaſures to bring the Delinquents before the awful Tribunal of their offended Country.

[Tranſmitted by John Browne, Eſq; M. D.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of Ludlow, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of the warm and grateful Senſe we entertain of your Majeſty's never-failing Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, particularly for the recent Proof thereof manifeſted to us by the Royal Proclamation ſo ſeaſonably iſſued for the Suppreſſion of Sedition and Maintenance of Public Tranquillity.

We have ſeen with Surprize and Concern the Attempts of raſh and deſigning Men, by the Means of artful Publications, and by the Correſpondences of illegal Aſſociations, to render the People of this Realm diſcontented with their reſpective Conditions, and to inſpire them with Views deſtructive of the Order and Happineſs of Society. We experience, however, the higheſt Satisfaction in knowing that we participate with an irreſiſtible Majority of the Nation, not only in our Abhorrence of theſe pernicious and deluſive Doctrines, but in the firm Reſolution to ſupport and preſerve the Laws and happy Conſtitution of Government, Civil and Religious, eſtabliſhed at the Revolution.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
Edw. Burlton,
Edw. Willings, } Bailiffs.

[Tranſmitted by Lord Clive.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in Kent, beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Gratitude for the freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's Watchfulneſs over the Safety of your Subjects, manifeſted in your late Royal Proclamation.

At this Period, when under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government all your Subjects are in the full Enjoyment of the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Peace and Liberty, we cannot but lament the evil Conſequences which the late viſionary and ſeditious Publications ſeem to threaten, to the internal Tranquillity and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

At the ſame Time we feel it our Duty thus publickly to teſtify our Diſapprobation thereof, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Country, and to your Royal Perſon and Government.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and under the Hands of us the Inhabitants, this 30th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[Tranſmitted by Thomas Tournay, Eſq; Mayor.]

To

May it pleaſe your Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberbrothock, from a firm and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and to the genuine Principles of the Conſtitution, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, with an Addreſs of Thanks for your gracious Proclamation reſpecting wicked, ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, ſo induſtriouſly diſperſed throughout the Kingdom, evidently tending to excite Tumult and Diſorder, and to ſubvert all regular and good Government. We are eager to expreſs the juſt Senſe we entertain of the real Liberty and increaſing Proſperity of the Nation, and alſo of the watchful Care and ſteady Determination your Majeſty hath ſo ſeaſonably manifeſted, to ſupport and maintain that Conſtitution and eſtabliſhed Government, to which we are indebted for our Happineſs and Tranquillity. Animated with theſe Sentiments, it ſhall be our conſtant Study to impreſs upon the Minds of the People entruſted to our Care, a ſtrict Regard to the Duties of Religion, Reverence and Obedience to the Laws, by which alone (under Providence) we can exiſt a free and happy People.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, may eſtabliſh your Throne in Righteouſneſs, and in the Hearts of your Subjects: That He may long preſerve your Majeſty, the Guardian of true Religion and Liberty, and a Pattern of Piety and Virtue; and that after a long and proſperous Reign on Earth, you may be rewarded with an eternal Crown of Glory, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberbrothock.

Signed in our Name and at our Appointment, by John Gowans, Moderator.

Aberbrothock, June 27, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Preſbytery of Penpont.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Penpont, penetrated with a lively Senſe of the many Bleſſings which we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Sway, embrace this earlieſt Opportunity of our being met together to expreſs our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government. We promiſe to ſupport with our utmoſt Ability our preſent excellent Conſtitution, which has long been the Admiration of other Nations, and, under Providence, the Source of Satisfaction and Proſperity to our own. A Conſtitution, wherein exiſts a balancing and mediating Power, which guards againſt the Extremes of Deſpotiſm and Anarchy, and, while it inveſts the Prince with a reſpectable Authority, ſecures to the People all the Liberty which they ought to deſire. This is a Point of Perfection to which no other, whether ancient or modern, ever arrived; and it cannot ceaſe to produce it's Effect, unleſs, moved by a Spirit of Infatuation, we proceed to pull it down with our own Hands, that we may periſh in it's Ruins.

We applaud your Majeſty's late Proclamation againſt ſeditious Writings and their Abettors, and preſent our ſincere Thanks, with profound Reverence, before the Throne, for ſo wiſe and juſt and ſeaſonable a Meaſure. We deteſt and will oppoſe, to the full Extent of our Influence, all treaſonable Attempts to ſubvert the Government and diſturb the Public Tranquillity. With much Pleaſure we add, that the great Body of the People committed to our Charge entertain the ſame Sentiments with us, which we ſhall not fail to confirm in our Converſation and by our Example. It ſhall be our unremitting Study to cheriſh their Loyalty to your Majeſty, as the conſtitutional Guardian of our Civil and Religious Rights, their Reſpect for the great Principles of the Revolution, and their Obedience to the Laws; not from Motives of Policy and Expediency ſolely, but alſo from perſonal Love and Eſteem for our Gracious Sovereign.

That your Majeſty may, with deſerved Honour, reign for many Years to come over a free and happy People; that you may be bleſſed with the Friendſhip and Protection of the God of Heaven, by whom Kings rule and Princes decree Juſtice; that genuine Chriſtianity, which is the only immoveable Baſis of Public Order and Security, may flouriſh; that the Royal Houſe of Brunſwick may never want a Succeſſor to your Majeſty's Throne and Virtues; that your Majeſty's domeſtic Felicity may continue and increaſe; and that Britons may know the Value of their Privileges, ſo far as to intereſt them in their Preſervation, is the ardent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Penpont now met together.

Signed at Penpont, the 27th Day of June, 1792 Years, in our Name and Preſence, and by our Appointment.

Will. Keyden, Moderator.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverneſs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of Inverneſs, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with ſincere Profeſſions of ſteady Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and illuſtrious Family, and to that excellent Conſtitution under which we do, in common with our Fellow Fellow Subjects, enjoy as perfect a Degree of Civil and Religious Liberty as can be poſſeſſed in a State of Society,

Prizing theſe invaluable Privileges as we ſhould, we obſerved, with Abhorrence, the Attempts which have been made to render your faithful People diſcontented, by the Publication of ſeditious and inflammatory Writings: We offer to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for having iſſued your Royal Proclamation againſt the Authors and Publiſhers of them; and we promiſe to uſe our conſtant Endeavours for preſerving in the Minds of our Fellow Citizens that Loyalty to your Majeſty, that Love for our glorious Conſtitution, and Reverence for the Laws, by which they are at preſent actuated, and which alone can ſecure the Poſſeſſion of theſe Bleſſings.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Council,

Will. Mackintoſh, Provoſt.

Inverneſs, June 25, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Common Council, Burgeſſes, Inhabitants and Commonalty of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Common Council, Burgeſſes, Inhabitants and Commonalty of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the moſt ſincere Gratitude for your Majeſty's paternal Care, in watching over the Peace and Tranquillity of the Country, and by your Goodneſs in preventing, by your gracious Proclamation, your Subjects from being miſled by wicked and ſeditious Publications, tending to deprive your Majeſty's Subjects of the Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings which they have ſo long partaken of, ſince the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family to the Throne of this Realm.

Senſible of the great Happineſs and Proſperity we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we will at all Times have a due Regard to the Value of the many Bleſſings reſulting therefrom, and will, upon every Occaſion, unite in the firmeſt Support of your Majeſty's Endeavours to continue thoſe Bleſſings to us, by preſerving the excellent Syſtem of the preſent Conſtitution.

Fully convinced as we are, that the Wealth and Happineſs of the Nation principally depend on a Submiſſion to the Laws, a juſt Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, and a zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will uſe every Exertion to inculcate theſe Sentiments; and that we ſhall be always ready, to the utmoſt of our Power, to aſſiſt in diſcouraging all Proceedings which may tend to interrupt the Peace and Harmony of your Majeſty's Dominions: And that as it is our Duty, ſo it will be our Pleaſure, to co-operate with your Majeſty in obtaining the Object of the Proclamation; and that we will at all Times uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport the happy but envied Conſtitution of this Kingdom, againſt every Attempt to ſubvert it.

Done at the Guildhall in the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, this 27th Day of June, 1792.
